DYNAMITE USED BY FIENDS

Effort Made to Destroy Building Is Partly Successful

Police Find Bits of an Infernal Machine in Debris

AN infernal machine placed in the new building under construction for the bakery of L. Giachino and F. Depavoo, Sixth and West streets, was exploded by a time clock shortly after 3 o'clock this morning, wrecking a portion of the building and causing a shock and detonation which frightened residents of the district. The police rushed to the scene and fire was prevented. The damage to the new building and machinery will amount to something over $1000.

Police were placed about the place and today inspectors William Kyle and T. J. Finn are detailed to make a searching investigation by Captain of Inspectors Lou F. Agnew. Fragments of the infernal machine were found on the floor of the building some distance from where the explosion took place. They were in a badly battered condition and powder burned, but the police will use them as far as possible in searching for a clue to the identity of the dynamiters. It is thought that the infernal machine was placed in the bakery some time during the evening and equipped with a time clock. Some wheels and springs from the clock were found near the oven. The machine was the result of a hoax or of the bakery and blew this to pieces. Portions of the building were wrecked and the whole structure was thrown out of plumb. The police are puzzled as to the motive of the crime and are making a searching investigation. The owners of the building have asked the police that guards be placed about the structure for some time.

NO MORE QUEENING; NO MORE RAGGING!

Girls, Remember That the Edict Has Gone Forth at School

No more queening in the corners. No more ragging in the armory. No social gatherings in the halls after 12:45.

REMEMBER!!!

Thus does the girls' board of control of the Manual Training and Commercial High school enforce discipline. The armory, scene of many a merry gathering, where fair jancers swayed to the syncopated melody of "Snooky Oukums" or "The Elephant Rag," must never, never, NEVER see such goings on again. The rag is barred. Folk dances are all right—and even the tango isn't so bad—but if the sounds of "Snooky Oukums" ever issue from that armory again, the girls' board of control will be out there at once—and not to dance, but to mete out punishment. We go to the girls' board in the school hall. The girls' board of control, together with a recommendation by the girls' board as to punishment, is met at an hour after school by suspension. Terpsichore has been routed by the new system of student self-government. And "queeners," too! The board of control has them on its list. Never more must tender notions be whispered in man and maid in the corners of the school or the alcoves of the armory. That's as bad as queening. Careful, you spooners, for if Bessie Busher, student secretary, gets her eye on you again the "stay after school" punishment will be the same course of flight adopted by Terpsichore. "Say, Terp, it's the limit!" mutters the blind god to his companion in flight. "Sure it is, Cuipe; sure it is!" answers the goddess of dancing, and they both look ruefully at "Poly" High, where love and ragging are barred.

BLOODHOUNDS PURSUE ROBBERS

This Is Friday, 13th; Is It Your Hoodoo?

For the second time in the first three months of the year 1914 this mundane sphere today was confronted with the hideous hoodoo and ogre, Mr. Friday-the-Thirteenth. There will be one more chance this year for the hoodoo to get in his work—on Friday, November 13. In 1913 there was but one Friday of all the fifty-two which fell on the thirteenth of the month. That was Friday, June 13. Next year, 1915, there will be but one Friday, the 13th, when the hoodoo date comes in August of that year.

WHITE HOUSE TROTH ANNOUNCEMENT DUE

Wilson - McAdoo Engagement to Be Officially Told

WASHINGTON, March 13.—Formal announcement of the engagement of Secretary McAdoo and Miss Eleanor Randolph Wilson, youngest daughter of the President and Mrs. Wilson, was expected to be made today at the White House.

Persons in a position to know said confirmation of reports of the engagement had been decided on by the Wilson family, although it had not been intended to make the announcement at such an early date. The publication, however, in many newspapers today of the prospective marriage influenced the decision at the White House.

Rumors were current that after the marriage of McAdoo and Miss Wilson, which is expected to take place in June, the secretary would resign from the cabinet and be appointed Ambassador to France, but White House officials declared such reports were without foundation.

Orange Day Planned; Boost Golden Fruit

California is to celebrate her Orange Day on March 21 this year, and on that day the golden fruit of this state will be served on the tables in every hotel, cafe and restaurant, wherever possible, while 45 of the principal railway lines of the United States and Canada have signified their intentions of serving oranges in their liners and on their steamships. Every effort will be made to advertise and increase the consumption of California's chief fruit industry, and those interested in the movement of California Orange Day ask everyone to assist in making the day a success.

Italian Troops Kill 262 Arabs in Battle

BENGASI, Tripoli, March 13.—Severe fighting, in which the Italian troops killed 262 Arabs, took place on Wednesday in the neighborhood of the oasis of Senetia, according to dispatches brought here today by couriers from the interior. An Italian column composed chiefly of native levies was attacked on the march by 2000 Arabs and a sharp battle ensued. The Italians lost two officers and 42 native soldiers killed and a number of officers and 100 native soldiers wounded.

43 Vessels Wrecked by Moroccan Hurricane

MELILLA, Morocco, March 12.—Forty-three ships lie wrecked today on the shores in the vicinity of this port, having been driven on the rocks and shoals by a terrific hurricane which started yesterday. The wrecked vessels include five steamers and 38 sailing craft. The storm increased in violence today and a number of large vessels put to sea to avoid being smashed against the jeties.

Fire Destroys Hotel Tallac, Lake Tahoe

TALLAC, Cal., March 13.—The Hotel Tallac, at the southern end of Lake Tahoe, has been destroyed by fire, according to a report reaching here from the lake district today. The Tallac was the first hotel built by the late E. J. (Lucky) Baldwin. The loss is estimated at $50,000. Two cottages back of the hotel also were burned. The origin of the fire is not known.

4 BANDITS PEACE BODY SLAY R. R. ENGINEER

Sheriff's Son, Fireman and Deputy Sheriff Are Shot

Three Looters of Box Cars Caught; Posse Seeks Fourth

PEORIA, Ill., March 13.—Freight car thieves killed one man and wounded three others when surprised early today stealing goods from a car near Manlius, Ill., 45 miles north of here. Three of the thieves were captured by a posse.

The victims of the thieves were Arthur Fisher, a Chicago and Northwestern railroad freight engineer, who was killed; Bert Skogling, a deputy sheriff of Bureau county, fatally wounded; Leslie Beyer, son of the sheriff, wounded in the leg, and the fireman of the train, who in the leg. One of the thieves was found to be seriously wounded. He had been shot in the abdomen. He was removed to a hospital at Springfield, Ill. Bloodhounds were taken to the scene in an attempt to trace the fourth bandit.

The attempted theft and shooting occurred about 4 o'clock this morning. The conductor and brakeman of the freight train surprised the men as they were pitching merchandise out of a car near Manlius. The train was stopped and the thieves jumped from the freight cars. They ordered the conductor and brakeman back into the caboose and demanded that Engineer Fisher detach the engine from the train and proceed down the track. He hesitated in meeting the request and was shot through the head. He died instantly. The fireman was shot through the leg.

AGENT WIRE FOR AID.

The station agent at Manlius telegraphed for help to Princeton, in Bureau county, and Langley, a small station near Manlius. In an hour a large posse was scouring the surrounding woods for the holdup men. Near Sheffield, Ill., the posse overtook the bandits.

The hunted men opened fire and Bert Skogling, deputy sheriff of Bureau county, was shot through the face, shoulder and throat. He is believed to be hurt fatally. Leslie Beyer, son of the sheriff, was shot in the leg. The wound is not serious. The bandits who had been captured had been shot by their pursuers, but not wounded seriously.

UNIVERSITY CADETS IN FIELD ACTION

Two Battalions Swoop Down on Red Army; Turn Flank

BERKELEY, March 13.—Two battalions of University Cadets, swooping down from the Thousand Oaks slope, succeeded in turning the flank of the Red army at Cerrito Hill this afternoon in the second day's maneuvers of the student militia. The regiment of cadets was commanded by Major John T. Nance, while a mounted scout division was under the command of Colonel George Dickie. The maneuvers today constitute a portion of a general set of movements which the War Department will use for instruction of cadets in all state universities of the country.

The purpose of today's movements was to protect the east bay cities from the onslaught of the Red infantry, which had moved in again from the north, and the action again centered about Point Isabel and the much-disputed Cerrito Hill. In the vicinity of the latter the attacking force was located. Arriving at Thousand Oaks after 2 o'clock, the cadets took a line of battle around the hills and followed with a converted attack upon the enemy, which was a position along the Santa Fe tracks. The First and Third Battalions of Cadets succeeded in turning the flank of the enemy and forcing them back upon their base. The second battalion, meanwhile, in reserve, came up later, but was not needed.

PEACE BODY FREE TOLL ENEMY

Carnegie Foundation Distributed Pamphlet Urging Repeal

Claims There Is Greater Interest Than Coast-wise Shipping

WASHINGTON, March 13.—Activities of Andrew Carnegie's Endowment for International Peace in favor of a repeal of the Panama tolls exemption were brought out today before the senate lobby committee in the testimony of James Brown Scott, secretary of the foundation. It was developed that the endowment expended thousands of dollars in a campaign of education.

Scott testified that more than a million copies of a pamphlet urging repeal under date of March 15, 1913, were distributed. The endowment also distributed, Dr. Scott testified, 715,000 copies of Senator Root's speech urging the repeal.

Senator Walsh brought out that there was an allotment of $23,000 for circulation of the Panama canal literature and that the 715,000 copies of Senator Root's speech had been sent out by the endowment under the senator's frank. Scott said the order of the executive committee directing this action had been taken in Senator Root's absence.

WHAT IS PEACE SOCIETY?

"This is a peace society, is not it?" demanded Senator Reed. "It is," answered Scott. "Just what has it to do with Panama toll questions?" "Its business is to smooth out misunderstandings." "And yield to other nations?" asked Senator Reed. "You will find no yielding to other nations in our attitude," Scott declared.

The pamphlet issued by "members of the board of trustees of the Carnegie endowment for international peace," under date of March 15 last, was signed by Joseph H. Choate, Andrew D. White, Charles W. Elliott, John L. Cadwalder, Elihu Root, Luke E. Wright, Charles H. Tower, B. S. Woodard, Arthur C. Fox, G. F. Schmidlapp, Robert S. Brookings, Oscar S. Straus, Samuel Mather, James S. Sladden, Charles S. Taylor, Henry S. Pritchett, William M. Howard, Cleveland H. Dodge, Robert A. Franks, Nicholas Murray Butler, Arthur William Frazer and Jas. Brown Scott.

ALLEGES A HIGHER INTEREST.

Its appeal was as follows: "The greatest interest of the United States as a free nation is to represent worthily before the world the principles of civil and religious liberty and the public efficiency and way being which these principles develop and thereby to promote the adoption of these principles the world over.

"This is of great material as well as great moral interest. In comparison with this large interest the insensate vessels which sink into insignificance. "By securing the repeal of that part of the act of congress on the Panama canal which provides for the exemption of tolls the American people would embrace a precious opportunity to prove that they understood their highest interests and recognize their duty to promote it for the benefit of mankind."

Oeschger has been given a contract for three years at an annual salary of $3000, the result of a recommendation by "Philies," who acted as coach for St. Mary's college the last two seasons. Burris coaches the St. Mary's box is a coming world-beater. Connie Mack, manager of the Philadelphia American Club, was reported to have been on the boy's trail a year ago. $50,000,000 LEFT BY WESTINGHOUSE

Inventor Provided in Will for Continuance of Business

NEW YORK, March 13.—George Westinghouse, the famous engineer and inventor, who died here yesterday of heart disease, provided in his will for the continuance of his large business interests under a trusteeship.

It was stated officially today that his death will not cause any change of policy in operation of any of the Westinghouse industries. A plan which he carefully thought out long ago for their continuance and direction goes immediately into effect.

The men chosen to carry out this work are his brother, Henry Herman Westinghouse, who is president of the American Brake Company and vice-president and general manager of the Westinghouse Air Brake Company, Charles Attey, vice-president of the Westinghouse Electric and Manufacturing Company, and W. D. Undergraff, director of the Westinghouse Air Brake Company.

To this trusteeship will go the voting power in all the corporations in which George Westinghouse was interested here and abroad.

Westinghouse, who was in his 68th year, will be buried Saturday in Woodlawn Cemetery, this city.

COLUMBIA PARK BOY HAD GLORIOUS TRIP

Covered 36,670 Miles and Visited Many Strange Lands

Refreshed and inspired by a tour around the world with the Columbia Park Boys, William Costello Brooks, 16-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Brooks, of 417 Staten avenue, returned home yesterday morning.

Proudly he had carried Oakland's banner and at opportune moments he boasted his home city. He carried Oakland's message to the European continent and from the hour he left this city to the end of the journey the word Oakland was on his lips. The boy traveled 36,670 miles and raised $36,600 by means of their public entertainments. In all the affairs and programs William took part. He was among the musicians and played in the band and orchestra.

There were 17 boys in the company, which was led by Major Sidney S. Delotto, who was the founder of the "Columbia Park boys' club" of San Francisco. Talented boys represented the high schools of California and Eastern cities composed the party. Every boy was required to assist at the performances, which were given daily in the different communities of the old world and the new. They visited England, France, Italy, Ceylon, Philippine Islands, China, Japan, Honolulu, Egypt, Arabia, West Australia, South Australia, Tasmania, Victoria New South Wales, Queensland and the northern territory. Everywhere they received an ovation.

DECODE DATE, ULTIMATE, MEN ARM SELVES

Jobless Spend Night in Making Clubs for the Probable Battle

Unemployed Outnumber Yolo Officials 7 to 1; Force Is Avoided

BULLETIN.

SACRAMENTO, March 13.—The army of the unemployed won a bloodless victory today. They were not evicted from their encampment on the Yolo levee and for the present all talk of evicting them was abandoned. Instead the situation went into another complicated series of conferences.

SACRAMENTO, Cal., March 13.—In spite of the flat ultimatum served yesterday on the army of unemployed that they must either get out or be kicked and dragged out, it seemed probable today that the authorities of Yolo county would not make good their word, and that the employment of physical force would be postponed for at least another twenty-four hours.

The attitude of Sacramento county was responsible for this change in front. The authorities of this city and county took the position that they are responsible only for the safe-keeping of their own property and citizens and that what goes on across the Sacramento river on the sandy slopes of the Yolo levee is none of their business.

Yolo county, accordingly, found itself confronted with the problem of subduing, dividing and ejecting 700 armed clubs as well as grievances, with 120 deputy sheriffs and constables. It did not seem feasible.

Furthermore, there was a growing disposition not to force a savage, bloody fight. The men were hemmed in on all sides by water, if they were attacked. They were not to fight back with the desperation of any cornered creature.

"I hope," said H. Nelson French, sworn in as a special deputy district attorney for Yolo county, and of counsel for the West Sacramento Company, on whose lands the army is squatting, "that extreme violence will not be resorted to and my belief is that it will not be.

"History repeats itself and the lesson of history has been always that attempts to break up organizations of this kind by force only add to their strength."

A conference of the sheriffs of Solano, Yolo and Contra Costa counties was set for today, to decide whether the last two named should bring deputies to the field or not. They had none here this morning.

The army spent a tranquil night and was in high spirits today. Plenty of food was being supplied to them by Sacramento labor unions. Neither Yolo nor Sacramento county are contributing any rations.

The men asked grace until noon before giving a final answer, but their request was interpreted as nothing.

McCreery Places His Property in Trust

SAN FRANCISCO, March 12.—Declared legally incompetent yesterday, Walter A. McCreery, chairman and poetist, deeded his American property today to the Anglo-American Trust Company, the nominal consideration being $10. The property conveyed includes eighteen pieces of San Francisco real estate, real property in California, 100 acres near Hollister, Cal., known as the Henricks place and other realty in Lake San Benito and Napa counties and in Baltimore, Mo.

Postpone Action on Vehicle License Law

The city council today indefinitely postponed action on the ordinance, at the instance of various organizations, headed by the Merchants' Association. The ordinance was introduced by Commissioner John Forrest to equalize the collection of revenue, as heretofore the draymen and expressmen had paid almost the entire tax.

COLUMBIA PARK BOY BACK HOME

William C. Brooks Enthusiastic
Over World Tour in Many Strange Lands.

William was a sophomore in the John C. Fremont High school up to the time of his departure about 11 months ago. He will return this semester.

"There is no place like California," said William this morning. "No place like home. Next to California I like Australia, which is very similar in many respects to the Golden State. Australia has the 'go-ahead' spirit. I also admired the people, who are generous and pleasure-loving like the Californians. We received many aboriginal souvenirs from that country. Among the trophies were two which were presented to the party. I have a trunk filled with trinkets, boomerangs, spears and shields from Australia.

"I shall never forget the trip, which was entirely educational and equal to several years of high school training. I enjoyed every moment. Every place we visited was intensely interesting and I would like to make the trip again, but, however, it is fine to be home again. I was in perfect health during the entire journey. I gained in weight and I feel splendid today. I consider myself fortunate to have been able to make the trip with the Columbia Park boys.

DEFRAID THE EXPENSES.
"We earned $28,000 and that defrayed the expenses and we came out even. The trip was one of the most successful ever undertaken by the boys and gratified Major Sidney S. Felkott, who certainly knows how to handle boys. We all honored him. He is ideal and wielded an uplifting influence over the boys."

Though he is only 16 years of age, William C. Brooks is about six feet in height. In his blue and gold uniform he was a very attractive figure and was much admired. He will retain the costume, and upon state occasions he will wear it at the Columbia Park boys' club events. The memory of his pilgrimage around the globe will remain with him throughout his life, he declared. The youth will prepare to enter the University of California, upon completing his studies in the John C. Fremont High school.

Coburn Restoration In Final Argument

SAN FRANCISCO, March 13.—The final arguments were completed today in the case of Loren Coburn, the aged millionaire, who is making one last effort in the superior court to be restored to competency. This morning Attorney Matt J. Sullivan began the arguments in behalf of Public Administrator M. J. Hyman, Coburn's guardian, begging the jury to leave the estate of the octogenarian in the hands of a competent official in order that his heirs might be protected. In a similar strain Attorney Thomas W. Hickey pleaded that Coburn be not permitted to again assume charge of the management of his estate.

Archie J. Treat, who has been counsel for Coburn for many years, made the final appeal in behalf of the capitalist, urging that he be by his ingenuity amass a fortune, he should be permitted to enjoy it to the very last days of his life. Late this afternoon the case will be placed in the hands of the jury and a prompt decision is looked for.

Meyers and Wisner To Know Fate Today

NEW YORK, March 13.—John J. Meyers and A. L. Wisner, who have been on trial for some time on the charge of conspiracy to defraud, probably will know their fate before the day ends. Judge Martin, in the federal court began the delivery of his charge when the trial was resumed today.

The defendants, particularly Meyers, who came to New York to stand trial, of his own accord, and bears many credentials from men of standing in San Francisco, where he is well known, urged their counsel to impress on the court that they had no disposition to leave the jurisdiction. Meyers and Wisner were engaged in promoting the sale of mining stock through the mails when their offices were raided and they were arrested. Investors, it was charged by the government, lost more than $2,000,000 through the operations of the defendants. They were tried once before but the jury failed to agree.

more than a play for time in which to organize, for they were busy over night fashioning themselves clubs and staves from the willows on the levee banks and the firewood supplied to them by the West Sacramento Company, on whose lands they are squatting.

Accordingly the resolution was taken by the authorities to go forward sternly and promptly with the work to which they had set their hands.

Deputy sheriffs armed with stout sticks, staves, were to charge the mass, break it into squads, round up the squads, hustle them into waiting railroad cars than fifty to widely separated points within a radius of not more than fifty miles.

TRANSPORTATION PAID.

The citizens' committee of Sacramento pays the transportation, and the surrounding counties are acquiescent, provided they be not given too large a problem to deal with at any one point.

Those that resisted passively were to be picked up by the heels and the scuff of the heel and bundled along. Those that fought back were to be beaten into submission or flight.

Picked marksmen stationed on the roofs of boxcars and at other points of vantage were to single out any of the army who might draw firearms.

So far the problem was the same as that before the riot last Monday, when the army was driven out of Sacramento, but in its physical aspects it was an uglier countenance.

First and most important the deputies had no fire hose to aid them. Those who fought the powerful stream directed at them Monday were knocked down and pummeled breathless, or if they lay in the dirt and tried to anchor themselves the spray of flying sand stung them like hot cinders.

Sheriff Ahern said afterward that his one high-pressure stream was worth 500 deputies to him.

FORCE WATCHES BRIDGE.

Forty extra police besides the regular force of sixty and 275 special deputy sheriffs, divided into watches of 100-odd men each, with a tail of firemen and the militia still on guard at the state arsenal, kept watch at the bridges last night and patrolled the city.

A search of the county hospital and the records of the coroner's office show that there is no truth in a rumor that three men have died of in-

OAKLAND MACHINISTS COMMEND KNOWLAND

Resolved, That we, the members of Lodge 810, International Association of Machinists of Oakland, Cal., as citizens of these United States, do hereby protest against the repeal of the free tolls provisions of the Panama canal act, and be it further

THIEVES CREATE TERROR.

WOODLAND, March 13.—Thieves who forced the rear entrance to the armory of Company F, California National Guard, yesterday stole a quantity of clothes and shoes and committed a number of other small burglaries in the neighborhood, which spread wide terror in the absence of the militia, on duty at Sacramento.

A report quickly spread that twelve rifles and a quantity of ammunition had been seized and until receipt last night of an exact count of rifles left behind and taken, to Sacramento the report received general belief and was impossible to contradict authoritatively. No arms and no ammunition were stolen.

What the thieves did get, however, was a quantity of crowbars, hatchets and plimies from the shops of the Yolo Orchard Company, four miles outside the town, which would be most serviceable to a gang of house-breakers.

DEFINES CAPITAL'S STAND.

SACRAMENTO, March 13.—Yolo county must take up its own burdens today unassisted by the forces of Sacramento county.

"Sacramento county," said District Attorney Wachhorst today, "is not in the business of hounding the unemployed. If the other counties are relying on our aid I am afraid they are going to be disappointed. The only action we have taken has been to protect the city from a menace and that is the only action we contemplate in the future. Save for that possibility whatever happens on the other side of the river is no concern of ours."

The contiguous counties of Yolo and Sacramento each have jurisdiction in the territory of the other town's im-

the center of the river. In case of emergency, the district attorney pointed out, it would be possible for the 275 sworn deputies of Sacramento county to go to the aid of Yolo within the legal boundaries. Otherwise it would be necessary to swear in the 275 Sacramento deputies as officers of Yolo county, which has not been done and is not contemplated.

TO AID UNEMPLOYED.

NEW YORK, March 13.—Plans for the immediate resumption of the conditions of the unemployed will be discussed today at a meeting of the Religious Citizenship League.

FASHION SHOW IS MEGGA OF CROWD

Riotous Colors and Gay Gowns
Form Magnificent Exhibition.

The chief topic of discussion yesterday was Oakland's Fashion Show. At the sidewalks were lined with a fashionable throng while the shops were filled with early shoppers and sightseers. Special attention had been given to window display by all of the leading stores, each presenting the season's dearest shades in all the glory of their brilliancy. A few of the shops had elaborately decorated the interior of their display rooms, which lent an added air of spring to the early showing.

Capwell's second floor looked like a huge June garden, the cut flowers and hanging baskets harmonizing with the saucy and novelty fabrics in the brilliant colorings of the season.

Taft & Penner's display floor was a veritable French garden, where living models resembled daguerrotypes of the sixteenth century.

Heeseman's beautiful French gray room likewise took one back into medieval history, the season's modes of ruffles, de Medici and flame collars, surplises and wigs the vogue.

ABRAHAMSON'S.

Abrahamson's window display is one of the most handsome in the show and elicited words of praise from everybody all day yesterday. The large window on Washington street is put in in the Labrador blue, the immense corner one is dressed in wistaria, white and blue. This street side is arrayed in the tango shades. Here may be seen all of the gorgeous suits, dresses, gowns and millinery for which this big store is so justly famed. Yesterday every floor took on a gala appearance, the complete lines in each department showing care and taste in their selection.

The department with department displayed handsome two-piece affairs in the newest clothes, modeled in exclusive designs and after famous copies. Dresses in the new tawelling, volles, peau de mouton, pussy willows, creases, crinkled silks, made up in all of the tango shades were shown. These are priced at figures ranging from moderate to fancy. Gorgeous evening and wedding gowns are also carried by Abrahamson and the visitors saw a number that will take rank with Parisienne and London shops. Hats in every conceivable harmonizing shade, mode, design and price are on display, an entire floor given over to millinery. Downstairs the shopper can find everything for millinery's needs, the big store so centrally located catering to all tastes and purses.

AT THE GAINSBORO.

Oakland's new hat shop, the Gainsboro, held its formal opening yesterday. This new addition to the trade presented a novel and spectacular appearance, everything dressed in gala attire for its bow to shoppers. There were lace and jet hats, all of the popular straws in the reigning colors and shades, tailored and semi-tailored, basket flowers, ribbons and fancies. The management draws special attention to the policy of the new shop, which will be one of up-to-date styles and copies, pricing and wearing at all times. In soliciting the patronage of the ladies of the city, the aim of the Gainsboro will always be to give the best at the right price.

MANHEIM & MAZOR'S OPENING.

The window display of Manheim & Mazor attracted a large crowd of shoppers yesterday. One of these was a lavender and heliotrope, the other in the tango greens. This shop is specializing on its suits, which were shown in all of the season's fabrics and weaves and prevailing shades. The skirt models are chiefly in the poplin and peg-top, with clever overdrapes. Waists of the new crepes, and shadow nets are on display showing the raglan sleeves, drop shoulders and dished bang, navy and white. These come in all shades to harmonize with the suits. The crepe petticoats are prominent in this shop. A millinery department, where millinery is in fashion and popular shades, tailored and semi-tailored shapes, are shown, is one of the features of this store. Everything in millinery, including smart ribbon bows, flowers, and fancies, is shown. Advice from Paris are to the effect that this is to be the flower season, and Manheim & Mazor are prepared to supply the demand. French band hats in lace and jet, for the afternoon toilette, are also shown.

THE TOGGERY.

The Toggery entertained its friends and a throng of shoppers all day yesterday, displaying to devouring eyes new creations in the riotous colors and tango modes. A large assortment of Scotch plaid skirts for the business woman and morning wear are carried here, as are the popular Balmainian coats, in Copenhagen, emerald, fang, navy and white. Today this shop specialized on silk and novelty dresses for afternoon wear, with corresponding silk coats. The Toggery departed from the usual course this year and procured materials which they had made up in their own factory, not in the least smacking of the ordinarily priced "hand-me-downs." All suits in every fabric and shade are exhibited.

PACIFIC CLOAK & SUIT HOUSE.

The big window containing the handsome suits, in Labrador blue, attracted at the fashion show. All the season's showings in popular priced suits and coats were displayed, as well as one-piece dresses of the new crepes and silks. Attention, however, is centered on the suits and spring coats, where the mode and shades are combined in fancy and practical cloaks, and the notch plaid and peg-top skirts are to be found in large and complete assortment. Crepe and pussy willow petticoats were noticed among the display.

REALTY SYNDICATE CUTS THE PRICE ON GRAND AVENUE PROPERTY

Cutting Down the Grades as Well as Cutting Down the Prices.

Big Corporation Makes Long Expected Reduction in Prices in Order to Effect a Quick Sale of Its Miscellaneous Holdings.

The Realty Syndicate Company has decided to grade its lots along Grand Avenue Boulevard, put sidewalks in front of them, and close them out at reduced prices.

"Our object in doing this is to clean up miscellaneous frontages along Grand Avenue, and although we are offering these lots for less than they are worth, we feel that quick sales will justify us," said P. W. Morehouse, secretary of the Syndicate. "In fact this corporation must immediately dispose of its miscellaneous lots which are scattered all over Oakland, so that we can start operations upon our acreage properties."

"In selecting Grand Avenue as the first point of operation in this reduction of prices, we have chosen the choicest of our holdings," continued Mr. Morehouse. "Most of these lots are from 40 to 50 ft. frontages and of more than ordinary depth. Most of them will be sold for prices that prevailed on Grand Avenue several years ago, in spite of the fact that prices have advanced on this street more rapidly than in any other section of Oakland.

"I want to make it perfectly plain," concluded Mr. Morehouse, "that these reductions are absolutely bona fide and that the improvements which will consist of cutting down high banks and putting in sidewalks, etc., will be done immediately, as soon as the lots are now being carried out, and if anyone is in the market for a choice residential lot upon one of the finest thoroughfares and boulevards of this city, they cannot afford to overlook the opportunity we are offering them. We are selling lots on the finest part of Grand Avenue Boulevard for as low as $22.50 per front foot."

BURGLAR USES ROPE TO ENTER TWO STORES

Using forty feet of rope, a clothing store burglar last night got himself into the Heinz clothing store, 1223 Broadway, and later into the Cherry clothing store, 823 Thirteenth street, by descending through the skylight. The intruder was seen at both places, but managed to make his escape after being discovered. G. W. Heinz happened to enter his store about 9 o'clock last night and surprised the man, who was on the mezzanine floor of the store. Heinz locked the front door and telephoned for the police. A patrolman arrived, but the burglar had made his escape through the rear entrance. An hour later W. E. Stabler saw a man with a bundle dropped from the transom of a Cherry clothing store to the sidewalk. The man wore a suit of clothes which he had taken from one of the models in the window and which still bore the tag on the coat. He rushed away, followed by Stabler, who notified the police. A search was made of the neighborhood, but the man had succeeded in making good his escape. He had entered the store by smashing the skylight and dropping twenty feet to the floor.

Mexican Prisoners Are Puzzle to Judge

HOUSTON, Tex., March 13.—Judge W. Burns said today he had no authority to hear the case of Mexican military prisoners at El Paso issued "unless he should be specifically designated to do so. Judge Maxey, in whose district the writ was filed at San Antonio, is out of the state. The prisoners are men who escaped across the border to the American camp at Fort Bliss.

"Even if designated, it would be impossible for me to hear the writ promptly because I am in the middle of a preliminary trial, which will apparently continue many days," added Judge Burns.

NOTORIOUS GAMBLING CLUB IN S. F. RAIDED

SAN FRANCISCO, March 13.—There was another raid on the notorious Waldorf Club on Powell street, near O'Farrell, here, evening, in which four arrests were made and the declaration of Chief of Police White is that this raid seals the end of the resort, which for so long a time has been known as the most widespread gaming establishment in the business district of the city.

The raid was made at 8:15 o'clock by Corporal Jevay and a posse, and four men, Floyd Ferns, Joseph Bisiann, Louis Springer and John Bahn were arrested and looked at police headquarters for violation of section 269 of the penal code, which prohibits banking or percentage games.

150 SHRINERS RETURN FROM MANILA TRIP

SEATTLE, March 13. — One hundred and fifty nobles of the Mystic Shrine, representing most of the important temples in the United States and Canada, returned on the steamship Minnesota yesterday from Manila, where they went under the auspices of the Philippine Exposition. The party, which left Seattle December 20, made the longest pilgrimage in the history of the order, visiting the principal shrines in the Orient in addition to fulfilling their mission in Manila. Many of the pilgrims were accompanied by their families, the entire party numbering 200 persons.

JUDGE ZOOK GIVES SOME ALIMONY "DONT'S"

SAN FRANCISCO, March 13.—Superior Judge Edgar T. Zook of San Rafael yesterday laid down some "dons" for the members of the Marin Alimony Payers Club. The penalty for violations, he said from the bench, in incarceration in the Marin jail for from five days to 500. Here they are:

Don't remarry to beat the alimony game. It won't work.

Don't spend No. 1's stipend on No. 2. It's unfair.

Don't try to hide behind No. 2. It's not manly.

Don't plead high cost of living. Jail meals cost 17 cents.

Don't buy honeymoons with No. 1's alimony.

Thomas E. Jones, insurance manager, and in arrears $175 to Mrs. Jones No. 1, caused the foregoing remarks from Judge Zook.

Jones was getting along swimmingly with his ex-wife until Judge Zook discovered that two weeks ago he married Charlotte J. Davis of Mill Valley, after he fell behind in his payments to the first Mrs. Jones. This information called out the "dons."

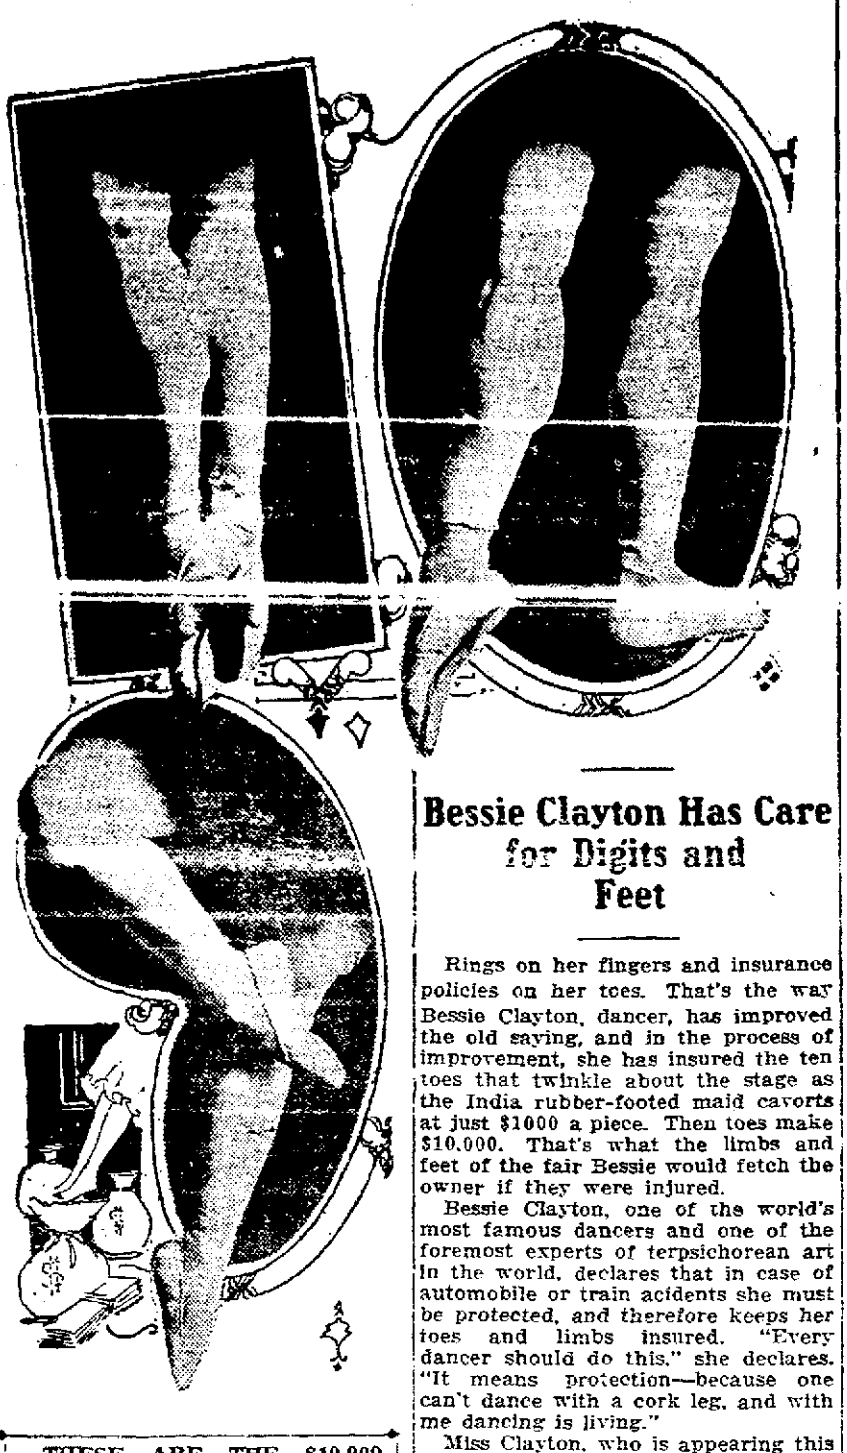

Don't let the announcement that Jones must pay $100 to his first wife within seven days or go to jail.

Jones admits receiving a salary of $200 a month, but contends that $70 a month is more than he can pay Mrs. Jones No. 1. He is plate glass manager for the Pacific Surety Company.

ALLEGED WORTHLESS CHECK.
SAN FRANCISCO, March 13.—Harry Hunter, a salesman, taken into custody in Oakland last night, appeared before Police Judge Sullivan today charged with passing a check on a bank in which he did not have sufficient funds. The check was drawn against the Garden City Bank and Trust Company of San Jose, and the complaining witness is W. Spanhake. The amount involved was $10.

Fingers and Toes Protected Rings and Policies Do Trick

Bessie Clayton Has Care for Digits and Feet

Rings on her fingers and insurance policies on her toes. That's the way Bessie Clayton, dancer, has improved the old saying, and in the process of improvement, she has insured the ten toes that twinkle about the stage as the India rubber-footed maid cavorts at just $1000 a piece. Then toes make $10,000. That's what the limbs and feet of the fair Bessie would fetch the owner if they were injured.

Bessie Clayton, one of the world's most famous dancers and one of the foremost experts of terpsichorean art in the world, declares that in case of automobile or train accidents she must be protected, and therefore keeps her toes and limbs insured. "Every dancer should do this," she declares. "It means protection—because one can't dance with a cork leg, and with the dancing is living."

Miss Clayton, who is appearing this week at the Orpheum, is the first American dancer to be featured in the Paris Municipal theater, where she created a furor. She has danced her way over Europe several times, and is one of the most widely traveled dancers in the world. She is idolized by European critics as well as in America, where she is known as the "queen of the dance." Also, she is much sought after by insurance companies.

THESE ARE THE $10,000 LIMBS OF BESSIE CLAYTON. INSURED AT $1000 PER TOE. THEY TWINKLE THROUGH THE DANCE REGARDLESS OF WORRY OF ACCIDENT. "TRAINS?" ASKS THE DANCER. "I SHOULD WORRY AS LONG AS MY POLICY IS GOOD." INSURANCE FIRST AND SAFETY AFTER IS MISS CLAYTON'S MAXIM.

OUSTED TAMMANY MEN ARE DEFENDED

Ex-Congressman Believes Delinquency in Dues of Club Is No Excuse.

NEW YORK, March 13.—The action of the Board of Governors of the National Democratic Club in dropping Charles F. Murphy and other Tammany men from membership was criticized today by former Congressman Martin W. Littleton in a letter to the president of the club. Littleton is himself a Democrat.

"I have disagreed with Tammany Hall from the beginning," read the letter, "and I disagree with it now, but I would never regard delinquency in club dues as a sufficient offense to put it on trial. I do not approve of your action in expelling Mr. Murphy and others. If you wish to fight, fight hard and fight fair; this will insure respect for your cause."

In answer to this letter and others from the sixty-five who were dropped from membership, Judge Edward F. O'Dwyer, president of the club, replied that any member who is delinquent in his dues is automatically dropped from membership, and that reinstatement is at the discretion of the board of governors.

"So far," Judge O'Dwyer said, "fifteen of the sixty-five have applied and will be reinstated. But Mr. Murphy and Foley, Plunkett, Darlington, Gaffney and Stegel will not be accepted."

JEWELRY STOLEN FROM SALESMAN

Part of Loot Recovered When Two Suspects Are Placed Under Arrest.

SEATTLE, Wash., March 13.—Jewelry valued at $7500 belonging to August Terratti, a jewelry salesman and broker of Aurora, Minn., was stolen Tuesday from Terratti's room in a downtown hotel. It became known last night when the police announced they had recovered word from Sedro-Woolley, 85 miles north of here, that the loot had been recovered and the two men arrested.

All of the jewelry was contained in a suitcase with special locks on it, and was left in Terratti's room Tuesday. Instead of the hotel vaults as requested by the management, Terratti left his room Tuesday afternoon and returned about 11 o'clock Tuesday night. He discovered the loss of the jewel case.

The police traced the jewelry to Sedro-Woolley. When Marshal J. L. Long of Sedro-Woolley saw Edwin Jarvi and John Jeski step from a train he followed them and later searched their room. The suitcase they carried was found to contain a large amount of the jewelry, considerable of which answered the description of that stolen from Terratti. He arrested both men on their return to the hotel and took them to the county jail at Mount Vernon. A further description was furnished to the Seattle department by Sheriff Ed Wells of Skagit county last night and the identification of the jewelry was established. Jeski and Jarvi will be brought to Seattle tomorrow.

DR. CALDERON HERE FROM WASHINGTON

SAN FRANCISCO, March 13.—Don Ignacio Calderon, Minister of Bolivia, arrived in San Francisco from Washington yesterday to lay the cornerstone of the Bolivian pavilion at the Panama-Pacific Exposition and arrange for his government's exhibits at the big fair.

Don Ignacio, a typical Latin diplomat, was accompanied by his wife, Senora Beatrice Monica Calderon, and his daughter, Senorita Elena. Senorita Calderon is a black-eyed beauty of Castilian charm and is one of the most popular figures among the younger diplomatic set at Washington.

Don Ignacio was met by Don Fernando Garcia-Munoz, secretary of the Spanish Consulate, acting for Consul General Carlos Sanjines of Bolivia and a committee from the Panama-Pacific Exposition. The Don and his party went to the Hotel St. Francis, where they will stay during their two weeks' sojourn here.

Mrs. Herron left her estate to her husband, but provided that in the event he died before she did the children by his first wife should be well cared for. The estate of $200,000.

VALLEJO NEWS
REPUBLICAN VOTE IN VALLEJO HEAVY

Registration Shows That Regulars Are Far in the Lead.

VALLEJO, March 13.—County Clerk G. C. Halliday, after going over the records last evening, stated that over 4400 Vallejoites had registered up to Tuesday. This is quite a record of registrations for this time of year as the total registration for the last presidential election was about 5200. As was expected, the Republicans were in the lead, there being about 400 Progressives on the rolls and 300 Democrats. The party on account of the coming recall election in this city there are more registered in Vallejo than the outside section of the county, as the records show but 5800 registered in the other towns in Solano.

MARE ISLAND NOTES

MARE ISLAND, March 13.—The new orders in reference to the Pacific torpedo boat flotilla, which is now making Sausalito its base, caused quite a bit of comment at the local station during the day and it looks as though Lieutenant John F. Pond, U. S. N., commanding the mosquito fleet, will take his ships either to Bremerton or San Diego in the near future. Bremerton looks to be the favored point for Pond is quite anxious to depart for that Puget Sound station owing to the fact that his father, Rear Admiral C. P. Pond, U. S. N., is likely to become commandant of that government plant.

That Lieutenant Pond is already on the job is shown by the fact that he sent a radio to Lieutenant Kaufman, U. S. N., commanding the flotilla, today to find out how soon the repairs would be finished on his craft. Pond also asked when the Farragut and Goldsborough could leave the yard and was informed that the work on the Goldsborough would be completed by next Monday and that the Farragut was in readiness to sail on short notice. According to the orders, Lieutenant Klein, U. S. N., commanding the Farragut and Goldsborough, but it would not be at all surprising to have him endeavor to take the two boats north with him in place of the flotilla, which will be unable to leave the local naval station until May, as her cracked cylinder cannot be replaced until the last of April. After arriving at Bremerton, Lieutenant Pond could order the Farragut and Goldsborough placed in ordinary there.

As a result of the department order the vessels of the flotilla not to be placed in ordinary will receive their full complement of officers and men. At the present time each one of the vessels have but nineteen enlisted men attached to them.

The examination papers have arrived at the yard for Lieutenant G. E. Davis, U. S. N., attached to the cruiser Albatross. He is to be examined along with Ensigns Alfred L. Ede, U. S. N., Francis W. Sunderland, U. S. N., and Sydney M. Evans, U. S. N.

Assistant Naval Constructors A. H. Van Keuren, U. S. N., assistant to the Hull department officer at the yard, and Assistant Naval Constructor Paul H. Fritz, U. S. N., superintendent of the yard, are also to be examined at the yard this month for promotion to the rank of naval constructors.

The army troopship Logan is due to the yard for repairs today. The ship is at least 100 marines on board for the Mare Island Marine Base. The men will be brought up to the yard by a tug Sunday afternoon.

DEPEW SAYS WILSON IS STILL A TEACHER

WASHINGTON, March 13.—Chauncey M. Depew, former Senator from New York, says President Wilson's activities in connection with forcing his legislation are those of the school teacher and pedagogue.

"He is as we suspected he would be," commented Depew. "You could not expect anything else from a man of fifty-two years with his training and who is set in his ways. He looks on Congressmen as forward-looking."

"The remarkable thing about it is that the people on the Hill stand for it. There was more independence in the Senate when I was a member of that body. But the Senate has changed in membership and party control."

ASKS RIGHT OF WAY FOR PENINSULAR LINE

SAN FRANCISCO, March 13.—An electric railway from San Francisco to Palo Alto, equipped to meet all the requirements of Peninsula commuters will be built at once if the San Mateo County Development Board procures the right of way.

This is the declaration of Fred A. Stokes, who put the project before the executive committee of the San Mateo board, and who says that he can furnish the necessary funds on the day the right of way problem is solved.

That the millionaire land owners of San Mateo county will donate a right of way to a responsible organization was the assertion of a representative of one of the largest holdings.

ATTLESHIP WILL VISIT HOME STATE

superdreadnaught Texas Will Receive a Silver Service From Commonwealth.

WASHINGTON, March 12.—The largest and newest vessel in the navy, the superdreadnaught Texas, which was placed in commission yesterday at Norfolk, Va., will pay a visit to the north weeks to the state in whose honor she was named. After dropping in first at her home navy yard, which will be New York, the big battleship will steamway for Galveston, where a silver service from the state of Texas is to be presented to the stern fighter.

While no official announcement has been made, it is believed here that an entourage may be taken of this trip to see the Texas join the American fleet in Mexican waters or replace one of the battleships now there. This giant of the sea is of 27,000 tons displacement, whereas the former vessel which bore the name Texas and which saw valiant service in the Spanish-American war, later being used as a target for battleship practice in Chesapeake Bay, was of only a little more than 6,000 tons. In spite of the constantly increasing size of the dreadnaughts, it is the opinion here that the Texas for some time to come will be able to stand as the "best all-around fighting machine in the world."

OPIUM IMPORTATION LAW SOON TO BE EFFECTIVE

WASHINGTON, March 12.—Regulations to carry into effect the recent act of Congress prohibiting the importation of opium went forward from the treasury department today. The regulations supersede those of March 27, 1909. The law prohibits, except under certain restrictions, the exportation of opium and cocaine and their preparations, but regulations governing their exportation have not yet been formulated. Pending the promulgation of these regulations, collectors are warned not to permit the exportation of these two drugs without express authority in each case. The act prohibits the importation for other than medical purposes of opium and its preparations and the regulations interpret the term "opium" to cover all forms of that drug known to the trade.

CHURCH AND RAKER ANGRY AT SCOTT

Collector of Internal Revenue Turns Down Recommendations of Solons.

WASHINGTON, March 12.—Congressmen Church and Raker are wrath at the outcome of the California income tax collection appointments. Early this year Commissioner Osborne of the internal revenue asked the three California Democratic congressmen to recommend appointments with the understanding that their endorsements would be honored. Collector J. J. Scott of San Francisco upset this method of selection by objecting to the congressional recommendations. He sent in selections of his own and with the exception of W. J. Corson of Modesto, who was recommended by Congressman Church, it is probable that none of the Raker and Church recommendations will be accepted.

GIRLS! HAVE BEAUTIFUL, LUSTROUS, FLUFFY HAIR--25 CENT DANDERINE

No More Dandruff or Falling Hair; a Real Surprise Awaits You.

To be possessed of a head of heavy, beautiful hair; soft, lustrous, fluffy, wave and free from dandruff is merely a matter of using a little Danderine. It is easy and inexpensive to have nice, soft hair and lots of it. Just get a 25-cent bottle of Danderine. Danderine now—all drug stores recommend it—apply a little as directed and within ten minutes there will be an appearance of abundance, freshness, fluffiness and an incomparable gloss and lustre and try as you will you cannot find a trace of dandruff or falling hair. But your real surprise will be after about two weeks' use, when you will see new hair—fine and downy at first—yes—but really new hair—sprouting out all over your scalp. Danderine is, we believe, the only sure hair grower, destroyer of dandruff and cure for itchy scalp and it never fails to stop falling hair at once.

If you want to prove how pretty and soft your hair really is, moisten a cloth with a little Danderine and carefully draw it through your hair—taking one small strand at a time. Your hair will be soft, glossy and beautiful in just a few moments. A delightful surprise awaits everyone who tries this.

11 WARSHIPS AT TARGET PRACTICE

Absence of Vessels in Mexico Interrupts Regular Program of Firing.

WASHINGTON, March 12.—Eleven battleships of the Atlantic fleet will start their annual spring target practice with heavy guns off the entrance to Chesapeake Bay during the week beginning March 20. It was announced by the navy department today. The vessels to participate are the Wyoming, Kansas, Nebraska, Delaware, Virginia, Louisiana, New Hampshire, Rhode Island, Georgia, Michigan and South Carolina. They have been carrying on winter maneuvers in the West Indies and will sail northward from Guantanamo Saturday. The Florida, Utah, Connecticut and Minnesota, now in the Gulf of Mexico, will be given an opportunity to fire later in the spring, as will also the vessels now at the bay yards. The absence of the ships in Mexico has interrupted to some degree the regular program of firing usually adopted for the Atlantic fleet for this season. Five army officers and certain officers of the naval militia will be present at the practice as guests of the commander-in-chief of the fleet. The maneuvers will continue until April 4.

BRECKENRIDGE IS DECLARED INSANE

Former Belle of San Francisco Society Obtains Divorce From Husband.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 12.—With her husband, John C. Breckenridge, hopelessly insane in a Paris sanitarium, where he has been confined for the last nine years, Mrs. Adelaide Murphy Breckenridge has finally secured annulment of their marriage in quiet proceedings before Superior Judge Bradley Sargent at Salinas last Monday. Hoping against hope, she had held off the final step until it became certain that Breckenridge could never recover. Accompanied by her attorney, Joseph D. Redding, Mrs. Breckenridge motored from the Hotel Del Monte to the county seat of Monterey and laid before the court affidavits from the French alienists, proving that her husband's mind was irrevocably wrecked. Mrs. Breckenridge herself took the witness stand and told the story of her life's tragedy—how, following her runaway marriage in 1904 with the son of Mrs. Fred Sharon, heir to some of the Lloyd family wealth.

TO GROW HAIR ON A BALD HEAD

BY A SPECIALIST. Thousands of people suffer from baldness and falling hair who, having tried nearly every advertised hair-tonic and hair-grower without results, have resigned themselves to baldness and in attendant discomfort. Yet their case is not hopeless; the following simple home prescription has made hair grow after years of baldness, and is also unequalled for restoring hair from falling out and destroying the dandruff germ. It will not make the hair coarse, nor can it be washed up by any drugstore. Buy Rum, 6 ounces; Lavender de Compose, 2 ounces; Menthol Crystals, one-half dram. If you wish it perfumed, add 1 dram of your favorite perfume. This preparation is recommended by physicians and specialists, and is absolutely harmless, as it contains none of the poisonous wood alcohol so frequently found in hair tonics.

Wilshire and his Cadillac will not be without close records compiled last season showed that of all American cars that are shipped abroad for touring the Cadillac stands third. Cadillac owners who have toured there state that the electric starting and lighting system never fail to attract attention. As the Cadillac has won the recent award of the Dewar trophy in Great Britain there will be renewed interest in this popular American make.

OAKLAND'S BOYS AND GIRLS

She Loves Art Will Study Hard

To devote her life to art work is the ambition of Esther Bank, a 14-year-old pupil in the Lincoln school. The child has already shown genius with the brush and the pencil. Her hobbies is drawing and painting. In all classes of the local schools drawing is taught. Many of the little folks specialize in that art upon completing their grammar school and high school career. Drawing has formed an important part of the curriculum and it is considered as essential as the regular branches of study. Many of the attractive specimens of the juvenile crayon sketches decorate the walls in the classrooms in the schools throughout this city. The work is much admired and is semi-annually exhibited.

STIEGEL-COOPER

STORES TO CLOSE

Million Dollar Stock to Be Disposed of for Benefit of Creditors.

NEW YORK, March 12.—The Fourteenth street store and the Simpson-Crawford Company store, the management of which has resulted in the indictment of Henry Siegel and Frank E. Vogel, charging violation of the State banking laws and grand larceny are to be closed tomorrow night by order of Judge Hough of the federal court.

After an inventory has been taken the stock and fixtures of the two stores and the equipment of the Merchants' Express Company are to be sold on March 24 for the benefit of creditors.

With the closing of the two stores about 2100 clerks and other employees will be thrown out of work, many of whom are said to have deposited their savings in the Siegel bank. These employees were considered by the court before the closing order was signed. Judge Hough was assured by William Matble, counsel for the store managers under the receivers, that clerks were in demand and that practically all of the 2100 persons would not be long without work. An inventory will be ready for presentation.

He Will Be There Fighting.

If the bill to repeal the law exempting American coast-wise shipping from canal tolls were brought to a vote today it would pass. The President has a majority pledged to his support in the Senate. And the party whips could carry it through the House of Representatives.

There is little chance that the Senate will change complexion. The battle for American ships must be fought in the lower House, and of all the men who are depended upon to defend the exemption law in that body none is looked to with more hopefulness by the friends of American ships than the representative from this district.

Very likely we are fully aware of the depth of the impression Representative Knowland has made upon the nation. It is hard, at times, to realize that one's familiar friend has become a great figure in the life of a great people, and everybody's familiar friend here at home.

Whether party organization and party loyalty to the President carries the repeal or whether earnest conviction triumphs over organization and personal attachment to Mr. Wilson and the exemption clause is sustained, there will have been at least a stirring contest on the floor of the House. And among all the champions who throw their hats into that forensic ring, we may be confidently certain that none will give a more patriotic, a more forceful and a more effective account of himself than our own Joe Knowland.

We must make him Senator. We really must. It is the one proper way in which to express the gratitude and the admiration of his own people for his manly and useful public services.

The Future Capital of the Coast.

The different ferries carried over 40,000,000 passengers across the bay in the last twelve months. Analysis of these figures shows that approximately 50,000 persons live on this side of the bay and regularly go to their places of work or business in San Francisco each day.

This proves, beyond all argument, that the residence conditions in Oakland and its closely neighboring communities are more desirable than those of San Francisco. For, of course, men and women do not ride from twelve to twenty miles each day, by rail and water, for the fun of it.

Wherever the residence conditions are best, population increases most rapidly. That is bound to be so. Wherever population increases most rapidly, manufactures, trade and property values increase most rapidly. That is elementary arithmetic.

Every premise upon which men base their conclusions as to the future growth of cities, justifies the confident prediction that in not many years the center of the wealth, trade and commerce of the Pacific Coast will be right here in Oakland, and that this city will as decisively outrank every other city on the coast in population as it will outrank them in the magnitude of its manufactures and trade.

This is not idle boasting. It is sensible reasoning, and reasoning upon which far-sighted men will base their investments. The laws of city building are as certain to work out specific results as are the laws of nature. Many of you boys and girls will not be very old men and women when your native city is the capital of all that great territory which stretches from Canada to Mexico and whose eastern boundary is the gigantic rampart of the Rockies.

Whenever you have a dollar to spare, bet it on Oakland's future. Buy a foot or two of land.

Even a Citizen Has Rights.

A special policeman went over from Berkeley to the Presidio to arrest a man Wednesday, shot him in the foot when he resisted, and, of course, got himself into trouble by his ignorance of the Federal law.

It is not Policeman Lee's sublime confidence in the illimitable extent of a policeman's jurisdiction and powers which is worth a few words of comment. It is the fact that he went over to arrest a citizen without a warrant and that both he and his superior officers seemed to think that he had the right to do so.

Now, unless a man is actually engaged in the commission of a misdemeanor or felony, a policeman has no more right to lay hands upon him without a warrant than has any other person. Indeed, the late Judge Gaynor, when one of the Supreme Court Justices of New York, went so far as to lay down the rule that a citizen was within his rights in resisting to the death any attempt at assault made upon him by a policeman attempting to make an illegal arrest without a warrant.

The police in all our cities continually violate the constitutional rights of citizens, and they do this not so much out of mere arbitrary show of tyranny as out of an entirely mistaken notion of their own powers and authority.

Lee was let off lightly by the military authorities, and if the incident causes other policemen to be more careful in respecting the restrictions of the laws, the Berkeley policeman's action may be set down as a wrong thing done well.

20 YEARS AGO TODAY

The Supreme Court at Washington has refused the motion to make the City of Oakland plaintiff with the state in the waterfront case. But it has allowed Oakland to furnish the court with testimony and printed briefs. It is claimed by the city that the Supreme Court is now in better position than it would have been had the motion been granted.

Miss Ethel Cohen of Alameda, entertained at a matinee tea a number of her friends at her home at Farnside, in honor of Miss Maie Tucker and Miss Sarah Collier. She was assisted in receiving by Mrs. Thomas Mages Jr., Mrs. William A. Mages, Miss Alice Merry, Miss Ethel Murphy and several other young ladies. Among the guests were: Mrs. Marcus L. Mages, Mrs. Bessie Wheaton, Miss Lillian Mages, Miss Alice Merry, Miss Charlotte Eleanor Wood, Miss Josephine Mages, Miss Frances, Miss Ella Goodall, Miss Martha Mages, Miss Currier, Miss M. Bazzoff and Prince Pontonoff.

At the home of Mr. and Mrs. Alexander McBean, Miss Emma Anderson Kittredge was married to Duncan S. McBean by the Rev. W. M. A. Brock. The guests were Mr. and Mrs. Duncan S. McBean, George and James McBean, Mr. Hewlett, Miss Anderson and the Rev. and Mrs. Brock. The People's Party Club of Berkeley held a meeting the other night and for two hours "waxed" words and gave illustrations of power and work, sent the meeting something of the aspect of a San Francisco primary. The whole trouble arose over the question of the nomination of delegates to the Berkeley convention. Among the protestants was N. P. Whitting, town trustee, who was seconded by J. M. Davis. Messrs. Good and Wagner asserted their willingness to resign from the executive committee.

WHERE THE FEUD STARTED

—BY THE EDITOR

Men or Women Teachers Rear Admiral F. E. Chadwick, retired, has reopened the controversy as to the effect of the preponderance of women teachers in the public schools. In the Educational Review he speaks of the evil effect of allowing women to teach boys, saying that it is an indignity to a boy to place him under a woman teacher, and that the manhood of the country is thereby feminized and made emotional and illogical. William McAndrew, principal of the Washington Irving High School for Girls in New York, has undertaken to answer Admiral Chadwick. He does so by saying: "It is only part of the truth to say that we should not have women teachers for boys in the public schools. What we need is an equal number of men and women teachers in public schools for boys or for girls. The average boy comes to our high schools from a home where both the mother and father are hard-working persons, employed in factories or shops, and who have not the time to bring up their children properly. This boy must get at school at this most impressionable period of his life the same kind of influence he would get in a properly conducted home. Obviously, then, he must have a woman's influence as well as a man's, it is absolutely indispensable. I know of no high school of good standing where this condition does not prevail. It is natural that it should be so." The educators of Germany and Great Britain assert unequivocally that America is making a mistake by allowing boys to be taught by women, but without offering much evidence of the feminizing effects on the American man of which they speak.—Buffalo Express	POINTED PARAGRAPHS The man who wants the earth is apt to get his share—of the mud throwers are on the job. Every man ought to know at least as much about his own business as he does about the other fellow's. Many a girl wastes her time trying to cultivate her vocal range, when a cooking range would be more in her line.	Peculiar and Pertinent Kauai, Hawaiian islands, has 27 open air schoolrooms in regular use. According to Dr. Clement Lucas of England, the Purren family is likely to become a one-toed race. Three Chinese are among those studying forestry in the New York State College of Forestry, Syracuse, N. THE VALUE OF SAWDUST

American and Canadian sawmills have discovered that the sawdust which they have been perplexed how to rid themselves of as a worthless encumbrance is worth at least $40 a ton. In Baltimore a chemist has perfected a process of extracting from sawdust adequate enough to supply a city like Ottawa with light and heat at 65 cents per 1000 feet. This is thought to portend that around the great sawmills, which have been emptying their dust into the Ottawa river, a variety of new industries subsisting on it are likely to grow up.

In Austria, where everything in the shape of fuel is being carefully searched for, sawdust is impregnated with a mixture of fatty substances and heated to the proper temperature, it is then passed over a plate of iron heated by steam from which a screw conveyor takes to a press, where it is compressed into briquets of the required size. The press time for about 100,000 briquets a year.

In Germany there is a bakery that turns out 20,000 loaves of sawdust bread daily and finds an open market for this product. Although this sawdust bread is intended for consumption by horses only it is claimed by the manufacturers that it is as healthy as the best of bread.

furnish a nutritious and very highly satisfactory food for human beings. The sawdust is first subjected to a process of fermentation and various chemical manipulations, and is mixed with one-third of rye flour. It is then shaped into loaves and baked in an oven like other bread.

For many years the French have extracted coloring dyes from sawdust. The sawdust, it appears, is acted upon by sulphur and caustic soda in a furnace. Sulphuretted hydrogen is liberated in large quantities and the vegetable substance, whatever it may be, is rendered soluble in water, to which it imparts a strong color, varying with the substance employed. These solutions are employed as dyes which are fixed by passing the fabric through boiling bichromate of potash.—New York Press.

Literature in Turkey has responded to the liberty that followed the revolution. Large numbers of translations and adaptations of European scientific and literature are now available.

The total population of the world is now estimated at 1,700,000,000. This is based on the most recent censuses, which all civilized countries now take, with a careful estimate of the number of inhabitants of uncivilized lands. The proportion of the sexes is known, for 1,038,000,000 of these, the ratio being 1000 males to 960 females.

French Pastry Crumbs Start
Baseball Manager on Stern
Court-martial.

French after the man who ate that French pastry, and he's after the waiter who served it. That's the principal occupation today of the Arthur Devlin of the Oaks, who ceased this morning to be a baseball manager to assume the role of Sherlock Holmes. Sitting as a court-martial judge, he put his players through a cross-examination and grilled the waiters on the training table at the Hotel Oakland last night, but for his latest have been in vain. A cross of French pastry tells of a gross infraction of the rules, but he can't tell who ate or served it. The player who partook of the forbidden dainty will be fined if discovered, and in the meantime Devlin has set guards to watch every morsel of it happened last night, when, after the evening meal, Devlin found on the table a crust of pastry—the one article barred above all others on the Oaks' table. He searched the waiters' cheeks, but could find no entry in the dainty. He examined the players. None admitted seeing any of the toothsome products of the hotel chef. Still, that crust was incriminating.

All today the Oaks' manager went on the attack, and also waited the White Sox manager who he found. They, too, are now watching the waiters.

It is known that Rube Gardiner, Jack Ness and Doc Norris, as well as Art Guest, love the toothsome sweetmeats. They were specially questioned and indignantly denied the eating of the forbidden fruit. Maitre d'Hotel C. L. Petersen has announced that no pastry will be brought to the training table hereafter by any waiter, on pain of dismissal.

ALLEGED MISUSE

Two Men Said to Have Used
Questionable Methods to Obtain Money.

Herman Kayser and J. J. McGovern, two alleged bunco men who have been using a so-called national business men's directory as a means of obtaining money, were arrested by the police, to flee a number of Oakland business men were trailed to the heart of the business district by a quartet of amateur detectives headed by C. Fred Burke, secretary of the Oakland Real Estate Association, and captured last evening. The police are investigating the record of the two men, who are being held in custody. Other members of the detective squad were Reginald Kitzelle, manager of the Realty Bonds and Finance Company, Fred Gray of the C. L. Gray real estate firm, and C. S. Jennings of the Barber's stationery company.

According to the police, two men, believed to have been connected with Kayser and McGovern, obtained the names and addresses and signatures of a number of Oakland business men some months ago, on blank sheets of paper. They represented that they were preparing a national business men's directory and that there would be no cost so far as the business men were concerned.

Yesterday Kayser and McGovern visited a number of offices and according to the police, displayed the blanks to which business men had attached their signatures but above which had been carefully printed a contract by which the signor agreed to pay $5 for a copy of the book. Burke was first advised of the matter when he visited Kitzelle, 404 Fourteenth street. There he was told by Kitzelle of Kayser's action and a description was given of the matter. Burke later recognized Kayser on the street and trailed him for several blocks to the office of C. E. Lambing, 113 Broadway. On the way Burke picked up McGovern and C. S. Jennings, later brought into the case. The four men finally captured Kayser and McGovern and marked them to the police station.

Great Quantities of Fresh, New Spring Goods at Prices That Amaze for Lowness
Lowest Prices in Oakland on Millinery in Spring's Smartest Styles

THE Latest Word in Suits and Coats

BY reason of improved buying arrangements, we are this season closer to the New York market than ever before. Almost as soon as styles appear in New York they are shown in Oakland at Hale's.

We invite critical inspection of our array of fancy suits. The coats are short, the skirts much ornamented; there is a glancing new silhouette, a gay abandon, no frills, bounces and fulbells. Not for many years has there been such diversity of ornamentation; not for many years has severity so entirely forsaken the tailored suit, whether for home wear or going away.

The coats have high-waisted postilion backs, ripples set flat to a high waist-line, panels that fall into postilion effect beneath half-belts or buttons; soft falling revers; sometimes wired collars of the Medici or Norma mands; sometimes flare cuffs circular; sometimes modifying frills of lace. The bolero or crossover fronts are in evidence.

The skirts have one, two or three tiers. They have ruffles oddly set, straight or diagonally, between hip and knee. They have tunics, short, medium or long. They are draped in new ways. Of men's wear, serges, of crepe, poplins, corses, of cheviots, mohairs and wool, sponge in check patterns, silk moire. New color touches include soft mahogany, rich deep blues, soft browns and soft black.

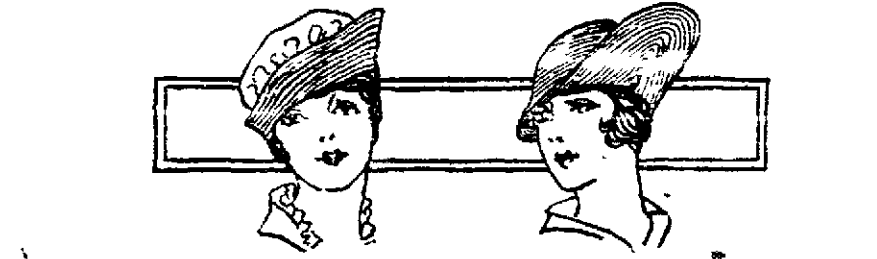

We could devote a page to telling of our display, and still you would have to see it. Be here tomorrow, note our styles and get our prices, and you will be strongly attracted, of that we are sure.

Suit Prices are $15, $19.50, $22.50 and $25.

PENSIONS FOR U. S.
EMPLOYEES URGED

Speakers at Mass Meeting
Advocate Aid for Retired
Postmen.

Urging for faithful employees of the post office service the same consideration that soldiers and sailors are given, a pension for years of good service performed, prominent citizens city officials and civic service employees themselves gathered last night at a mass meeting in the First Unitarian church. The meeting was held under the auspices of the postoffice clerk of Oakland, its principal object being to advocate the bill now before congress providing for the retirement of postal and other federal employees. Not only as a fair act but as a good business move did the speakers urge the plan before the voters.

R. J. Faneuf, superintendent of mail at the Oakland postoffice, presided at the gathering. Miss Annie Florence, a special director, one of the principal speakers of the evening, made a stirring address, showing the economic advantages of the plan now before congress. Rev. William Day Simonds, Chief of Police, Walter J. Petersen, Miss Blanche Morse, Judge William H. Waste, Frank Felden, past president of the Letter Carriers Association, and Superintendent F. Mullins, who secured the endorsement of the county board for the act, were the other speakers.

FROM POSTMAN'S STANDPOINT. Belden spoke from the standpoint of the letter carrier, declaring that years of faithful service should entitle a good employee in the government service to pension. He told of letter carriers working their lives out at a small salary and then being left almost penniless when retired by age. He stated that the same consideration given soldiers should be given the servants who, day after day, live by distributing the mails. He spoke of other branches of the government service, urging the claims of these.

BRYAN ASKS AMBASSADOR PAGE TO EXPLAIN

DIPLOMAT SAYS TALK WAS TOO CONDENSED

Concludes That Brief Report of His Speech Misled Senate.

LONDON, March 13.—Ambassador Walter Hines Page received today from Secretary of State Bryan notification of his speech on the Panama canal and the Monroe doctrine, delivered before the Association of Chambers of Commerce on Wednesday. The Secretary of State requested the ambassador to cable an explanation of the speech and Page immediately began the preparation of his reply.

After reading fuller accounts of the proceedings in the Senate, Ambassador Page came to the conclusion that the senators had been misled by the excessive condensation of his remarks in regard to his interpretation of the Monroe doctrine.

Page declared that he distinctly had said that the United States would object to or prohibit any European power from taking more territory in the new world and then in concluding had said, and the laughter of the audience.

So, he said, the United States would prefer that no European power should gain more territory in the new world.

The ambassador's remarks, he declared, had been too greatly condensed. When referring to the Panama canal he said that Great Britain would profit most from the canal and that she owned the great bulk of the world's shipping.

SHOULDN'T JOKE, SAYS SENATOR

WASHINGTON, March 14.—Senator Chamberlain, author of the resolution calling for an explanation of Ambassador Page's speech, said today he was gratified to learn that Secretary Bryan had acted on the Senate's request.

I see the ambassador says he was joking. Well, it strikes me that any President of this government should not joke about matters which President Wilson said in his message might provoke war," said he.

West Oakland Matrons Engage in Strenuous Exercise

A new phase of the feminist movement is developing at an alarm-ground, on Sateenth and Pomer streets, in this city. The mothers of West Oakland have banded together in an effort to wrest athletic honors from their offspring. The youthful athletes of De Fremery park, and have founded a regular athletic club of their own. This club is known as the Women's Outdoor Club of De Fremery park and engages in the most strenuous forms of physical activities under the leadership of Miss Bernice Chambers, supervisor of De Fremery playground. Not stopping at the gentle exercises of tennis and volleyball, these athletic mothers of this city play a good brand of baseball, and have even started a football team. Mrs. B. Sterns is captain of this aggregation of feminine stars of the gridiron and has achieved considerable notice as a long-distance punter.

The boys' soccer football teams of De Fremery have taken all the honors in the playground leagues, but now their mothers are out to surpass the record of their youthful progeny and to show the youngsters how the game should be played. It is rumored that a league has been started between the women's clubs of De Fremery, Mosswood and Bushrod to determine the questions of supremacy in football.

The Women's Outdoor Club of De Fremery park meets every Tuesday and Friday afternoons at 2.30 in the playground sections of the grounds. The officers of the club are: President, Mrs. Evans, vice-president, Mrs. Pinner, secretary and treasurer, Mrs. Zorn.

Mayors to Receive Tonight;
Event Marks Epoch in Local History.

THE MAYOR'S STATEMENT.

Mayor Mott issued the following statement today:

"In the rotunda of the new city hall, open for the first time to the public, has been installed a city planning exhibition, to continue for ten days. This exhibition comprehends a wide range of maps, diagrams, models, photographs, data and other interesting material concerning American and foreign city development and their problems. Every citizen interested in civic growth should take advantage of this excellent opportunity to study the many vital and important questions of our community life. I have great pleasure in inviting the public to attend this exhibition and to view the edifice in which it has been housed."

Throngs of citizens waited at the main Washington street entrance to the City Hall this morning for the opening of the city planning exhibit at 11 o'clock. Then they commenced to circulate through the building, lingering in this room or that to inspect some part of the great exhibit.

The formal opening tonight at 8 o'clock, when Mayor Mott will head a committee of the mayors of six east bay cities to receive the thousands of visitors, will mark an epoch in the history of the east bay region. The exhibit contains in small form a magnificent plan for the wise and reasonable development of the cities of Alameda and Contra Costa counties. Among the committee members will be Mayor Hewwood of Berkeley, Mayor Ous of Alameda, Mayor Craig of Piedmont and Mayor Ludwig of Richmond.

No less interest was expressed by the visitors in the beauties of the interior of the new City Hall than in the exhibit itself. For the first time since its completion the rotunda and council chamber of the $2,000,000 structure were thrown open to the public. The superb rotunda, with its great staircase and dome, its marble and stone work and great columns, was the object of admiration.

Mayor Mott and Commissioner of Public Works Harry S. Anderson, with John E. Rath, the famous originator of the exhibit, were at the City Hall early this morning directing the final work of getting ready for the opening. Architect Harry Cheney, who has been an indefatigable worker in the new work in time, assisted in having the rooms prepared.

ALL CONDITIONS SHOWN.

The city planning exhibit is an epitome of what a city should do for itself to assure its development and betterment. Everything is shown in diagram, relief map or model. Housing conditions, skyscrapers, built-up blocks, cottages for suburban development, harbor plans, garbage incinerators, water supply systems, fire-fighting apparatus, playground equipment and a host of other things pertaining to city life are shown in detail in small models, maps, photographs and drawings.

Of special interest to Oakland is the room devoted to harbor development. Here are shown plans of harbors, docks and wharves of Liverpool, New York, Boston, European seaports, New Zealand and Australian harbors.

More visitors gathered round the great relief map made by Fred W. Johnson, civil engineer in the Oakland harbor department, of Oakland harbor and the east bay waterfront from San Pablo bay on the north to San Leandro on the south. It took Johnson many weeks to make the map, which is on a scale of 1,000 feet to one inch on the map. It is painted and laid out with railroad lines, roads, harbors, factories and factory sites all located.

The map shows the western waterfront as it will appear if the Colton-Rees harbor plan is carried out. The Key Route basin is shown as it will appear when the plans prepared by the city of Oakland and the San Francisco-Oakland Terminal Railway are carried out. The Richmond harbor, the inner harbor and Cutting

"Avenue of the Presidents" Now Plain 16th Street

WASHINGTON, March 13.—The national capital, which during the past two years has numbered among its streets one bearing the imposing, foreign-sounding name of "Avenue of the Presidents," today went back to the Democratic simplicity of Sixteenth street, as a result of congressional action. After prolonged discussion and presentation of arguments to show that the capital of the United ing north from the White House a name befitting the dignity of the great country whose executives used the avenue as a thoroughfare. Congress several years ago changed the name.

During the debate which resulted in rescinding the previous action Senator Lodge declared that the corruption of a French name went "against the grain," while Senator Brandegee of Connecticut admitted a "silly notion" had led him frequently to throw bricks through the lamp posts decorated with the "Bilalain" name. Laughter greeted the suggestion of Senator Thomas of Colorado that "the alley running from the Avenue of the Presidents near M street be renamed the Alley of the Vice-Presidents."

RICHEPIN PINKS FRONDAIE IN DUEL

Son of "Immortal" and Author Cross Swords
After Quarrel

PARIS, March 13.—A sword duel fought today between Jacques Richepin, son of Jean Richepin, the "Immortal," and Pierre Frondaie, author of a play now being performed in Paris, resulted in the wounding of Frondaie.

The quarrel arose out of an incident in the lobby of a theater on Wednesday. Mme. Frondaie, it is alleged, made some cutting remarks to Jacques Richepin's wife, known as Mme. Lapourde, who is co-manager of the theater.

M. Frondaie took full responsibility for his wife's comments and was thereupon challenged to fight by M. Richepin.

The encounter took place in the suburb of Neuilly. More than a hundred notable literary and dramatic men, numerous reporters, photographers and moving picture operators watched the combat.

The wives of both principals appeared on the scene, but were not allowed to view the duel. They remained on the road outside in their automobiles, where they were surrounded by crowds of women friends. They could hear the clashing of the swords. During the first bout neither combatant was touched. In the second, however, M. Richepin's sword penetrated M. Frondaie's forearm and the engagement was brought to an end. Jean Richepin then embraced his son and his wife threw herself into his arms, while Mme. Frondaie helped the surgeon to dress her husband's wound.

The combatants left the ground without being reconciled.

STRONGLY DEFENDS DUELING.

BERLIN, March 13.—Dueling among officers in the German army was strongly defended today by Lieutenant General Erich von Falkenhayn, minister of war, in replying to an interpellation regarding the fatal duel at Metz between February 26, when Lieutenant Haage was killed.

The minister for war said the institution of dueling was a necessity for the military caste. He made it clear that his efforts to diminish dueling in the army were directed not against the duel but toward the restriction of the number of cases in which an encounter was regarded as imperative.

ADMITS DUELING IS OFFENSE.

"I personally would consider it a misfortune," he said, "if the conception of personal honor on which the practice of dueling is based should be eradicated. I admit that dueling is an offense under the laws, both of God and of man, and is an evidence of physical rather than of moral courage. Moreover, the penalty is liable to fall on the wronged man. Nevertheless, an officer must be the de-

Suicide.

PHOENIX, Ariz., March 13.—Dividing her time between cooking at a fashionable apartment house, giving luncheons at a leading hotel on her off afternoons, and trying to buy a model school a woman who asserted she was Mme. Arriola, wife of a noted San Francisco musician, ended several weeks of deception here by committing suicide last night.

Instead of being Mme. Arriola herself, she was a former cook in that family, according to the police, who say that a young woman from San Francisco recognized her here just about the time that papers had been drawn up for her purchase of the Arizona School of Music.

In her purse was found a card bearing the address May Beach, Ventura, Cal. She told the police her maiden name was Lillian May Biechle, and that she came from a wealthy Pittsburg family. She swallowed poison at a private party and died at a hospital.

On taking a position as cook here it is said she represented herself to outsiders as a chaperone for a party of young ladies.

The police say that the San Francisco woman who recognized the masquerader as the former Arriola servant told them of a similar adventure in San Francisco. According to this story, the dead woman posed as Mrs. Arriola when her mistress was out of the city, and in company with other servants gave a dinner at one of the leading hotels there.

fender of his own honor and is entitled to regain his self-esteem by vindicating his manhood and to repel the imputation of lack of courage by facing his adversary, pistol in hand."

DECREASING IN GERMANY.

Dueling, according to the minister, is decreasing in Germany.

"There were only twelve duels in 1913," he said, "among the 75,000 active and reserve officers in the German army, but this rate is still too high. The fatal duel at Metz could have been avoided if Lieutenant Haage had waited until the court of honor had considered the case, but the officer had felt deeply insulted and refused to do so, with the result that he was killed."

HYOMEI SOOTHES, PURIFIES, HEALS CATARRH ILLS

When you have frequent attacks of sneezing or head colds, tickling in the throat, dull headaches, crusts in the nose, raising of mucus or spasmodic coughing, and seem lacking in vitality, you are afflicted with catarrh—a disease that cannot be neglected since it often leads to a serious if not fatal ailment. The ravages of catarrh will in time wreck the health of even the strongest person. Besides, catarrh is so unpleasant—it makes your life miserable and annoys your friends.

At the first catarrhal symptom surely use Hyomei. It's the right-to-the-point remedy—you breathe it—no nauseating drugs to upset your stomach.

Hyomei is a combination of anti-septic oils that you breathe into the nose, throat and lungs in the natural way. Just put a few drops into the inhaler and breathe it in. The germicidal fumes mix with the air and at once penetrate to all nooks and crevices of the breathing organs. It destroys the dangerous germs that may be lurking in the delicate tissues, and immediately soothes and heals the raw and inflamed membrane.

Hyomei is sold with an agreement to refund the purchase price to anyone who is not benefited. You surely can afford to try it on an offer like this. All druggists have it. Get the complete outfit, $1 size. —Advertisement.

This Is 'Bunch,' Marry Me? Pretty Operator Says 'No'

Natural Answer Would Be "Yes," But Miss Timm Hesitates

"This is 'Bunch.' Will you marry me?"

Thus did Cupid again use the telegraph wires for his purpose, when the message above was received by Miss Louise Timm, pretty telegraph operator at the Hotel Oakland. Sad at least not yet—for Miss Timm is thinking over the matter and refuses to divulge the real name of "Bunch."

But, an operator, however, and stationed somewhere on the Western Union line that goes into the hotel. Further than that Miss Timm refuses to particularize.

Miss Timm has been in charge of the station at the Hotel Oakland for some time and is well known among the hotel guests. While the wire was in use, it was during one of these rests that the message came.

"It isn't the first one," declared Miss Timm. "Every now and then I get the same message. 'Bunch' is a nice boy, but really I haven't decided to marry anyone—and I don't take this seriously, exactly. It must sound funny, though, coming over the wires."

ADVOCATE MOVIES FOR SCHOOL USE

The State Board of Education Unanimously Endorses the Chenoweth Plan.

EDITOR TRIBUNE: I take pleasure in handing you herewith an outline of the suggestion which I made to the State Board of Education today, and which was unanimously endorsed by the board.

The Commissioners of Education were instructed to secure all information possible regarding the placing of moving pictures in our schools, particularly the country districts, and will render their report at a future meeting of the board.

The plan of showing moving pictures has already been demonstrated successfully in the State of California, and in various other places in California. Without doubt it will be of greater value in educational advancement as the years go on, and will improve directly the evil which is being done through improper pictures now being displayed. I trust you may see your way clear to assist this work through the giving me. The fact that the law has established a civic center in each school district will make it more feasible to carry out the plan. There are many obstacles to be met, and, I confess, several legal points to be solved, but the main point of educational advancement remains.

Thanking you for your courtesy, I am, Very truly yours,
F. E. CHENOWETH,
Member State Board of Education.

Mr. plan, in brief, is to put a motion picture apparatus in every school house—particularly in every country schoolhouse—in the state, and to supply every district with educational films of all kinds, selected and distributed by the State Board of Education.

These films should cover a very wide range of subjects, such as science, mechanical arts, industries, animal life, horticulture, agriculture, travel, history, current events and even historical and other dramas of the high character and accuracy of the pictures could be insured, and the films could be sent out of the state to make them of the greatest educational value.

LIKE CIRCULATING LIBRARY.

The films would travel about over the state like a great circulating library, and they would have an educational and economic advantage over a circulating library in the fact that they would present information in a form more easily and quickly grasped, and at a less expense, taking into account the vast greater number of people benefited.

Details of the plan remain to be worked out. Probably the several districts should be required to purchase the apparatus, and I think it would be well to leave such purchase optional with the trustees. I have no fear that the demand for apparatus and for films would grow as rapidly as it could be supplied.

STATE PURCHASING AGENT.

Probably the state should act as purchasing agent for the district in order that a uniform quality of apparatus be obtained and the purchase of the apparatus of wholesale rates. Certainly the state should furnish the films in order that the selection and the order of sending them out might be properly controlled. Whether the districts should be asked to pay a rental for the films is a question for further debate.

This is the plan in outline. It seems to me to be so simple and obviously practical as to need neither explanation nor argument. I might call attention, however, to a few especially pertinent facts. Everybody knows the great educational value of motion pictures of the right character. But everybody knows that in a great percentage of motion picture houses the educational films are sacrificed to between others of a questionable or hurtful kind. A censorship that canrown on the bad but cannot take active steps to put the good in its place is seriously handicapped, to say the least.

ADMISSION TO BE FREE.

In addition to their use in the schools, the films should be shown in the school houses at least one evening each week, and both children and adults should be encouraged to attend these exhibitions free of admission. I consider this an essential feature of the plan, first, because I believe that our public educational system should be broadened to include every person in the state, and extended gradually so that it may follow every person in the state.

Second, the public ought to get just as much use as possible out of every dollar of public funds expended. It costs no more to show pictures to a room full of people than to a few people scattered over the house.

COUNTRY SCHOOLS BENEFITED.

It is obvious that the country schools and country neighborhoods where the facilities for entertainment and contact with the outside world are few would get a larger relative benefit from the operation of this plan than would the city schools. And for that reason, it would make a special effort to put the motion picture service at the disposal of the country districts at the earliest practicable date. Possibly it would go a little way toward making country life more attractive if the people of every country district knew that they could see the finest motion pictures that art produces free of charge in their own school house every week.

The Property

Richmond Canal Subdivision

The property to be subdivided is the logical business center and the best part of the waterfront of Richmond. It is located between the Inner Harbor and the Municipal Tunnel—the gateway to the Outer Harbor, and extends to the inner arm of the Government channel. Its similarity with the Embarcadero and the business part of Market street, San Francisco, and Oakland Harbor and Broadway is obvious.

The Reason for this Contest

Having studied the industrial conditions of the Atlantic coast cities and realizing the tremendous effect the opening of the Panama Canal will have upon the industrial development of the Pacific coast and that of Richmond in particular, we feel that the correct planning of this vitally important piece of property will have far-reaching consequences upon the future traffic and business problems of Richmond.

With this in mind and having the future of Richmond, with which city we have been identified for the past ten years, at heart, we feel ourselves inadequate to the task, and rather than use our plan or decide upon the plan of one single person we have decided to call in the general public and by a planning contest secure the best idea possible.

Contest Open to All---Not Skill but Common Sense

You need not be a draughtsman, architect or engineer; all you require is common sense, logic and application. San Francisco and Oakland, both harbor cities, are laid out along certain lines, like all other harbor cities. Bear this in mind, and then suggest where the main thoroughfares will be located on our property.

All you need is a pencil, a little thought and you may win one of these prizes.

This May Help You In Your Planning

Visit the City Planning Exhibit at the Oakland City Hall from March 13th to March 22d. It has just arrived from New York, where it attracted nationwide attention. It embodies the thoughts and imaginations of the best thinkers of the world. By attending this exhibit you have all this knowledge at your hand, and your task will become very easy indeed.

We appeal to young men and women of a serious turn of mind, business men, professional men, societies, clubs and all level-headed people who observe and do not go through life with their eyes shut.

These Are the Prizes

- $5000 for the best plan suggested.
- 5 prizes of $1000 for the next best suggestions.
- $500 to the person who will write the best and most logical essay on the development of Richmond within the next ten years.
- 5 prizes of $100 each for the next five best.
- $500 to the person who will write the best essay on this property being the logical business center of Richmond.
- 5 prizes of $100 for the five next best.

We reserve the right to use any or all of the plans, or a portion of any or all of them, because we think even the best plans might be improved by a composite plan made up of ideas drawn from the many which will be submitted. The prize money will be paid in Richmond real estate, which is even better than gold dollars.

Premier Asquith Is Blamed by Paper

LONDON, March 13.—"Votes for Women," the suffragette newspaper edited by Frederick and Emmeline Pethick Lawrence, comments today on the mutilation of the Rokeby "Venus" in the National Gallery as follows:

"Miss May Richardson has demonstrated once more that society rests on mutual forbearance and consent and that if one section, however powerful, outrages the feelings of another section, however small, there are means of retaliation open to those who have been wronged which will be keenly felt by the community at large."

"Miss Richardson's action is, of course, widely criticised and condemned, but the real culprits are Premier Asquith and his government, who have taught women, by precept and example, that they care nothing for equity or justice or the priceless traditions of liberty. The only thing which influences them is a strong right arm, which can strike an irreparable blow."

SUFFRAGE GRANTED TO WOMEN IN DENMARK

COPENHAGEN, March 13.—An agreement reached today between the Socialist, Radical and Moderate parties, which control majorities in both houses of parliament, assures the passage of a constitutional reform bill, under the provisions of which all electorally qualified persons are abolished and suffrage is granted women.

NOT READY TO YIELD COIN GIVES RELATIVES LAUGH

WILLIAM KAHLER, SAN FRANCISCO'S WEALTHY BEGGAR, WHO WAS FRIENDLESS UNTIL ALLEGED RELATIVES HEARD OF HIS FORTUNE.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 12.—I am going to hold on to my money, you can bet on that, and not let it take away from me. The only relatives I have are some cousins in Maine. I haven't been home for many years, and there is nobody that has any right to the little that I have saved.

This was the firm declaration of William Kahler, the homeless beggar, when taken into custody by the police who was found to have in his possession a tin box containing $100 in gold, and bank books showing deposits totalling $6000.

Kahler resides at the Portland House. He smiled today when he spoke of his relatives and the endearments of a crowd of alleged relatives who had come to him in the street.

I guess they think I am not able to take care of my money, he continued. "I'll be all right, they needn't worry about me. The police knew I was all right. They treated me fine and they let me go as soon as they were satisfied that I was not a beggar. I have worked hard for my money and I am saving it for a rainy day."

U. S. Express Co. Directors Meet

NEW YORK, March 12.—The directors of the U. S. Express company met today to discuss the future of the company. It was expected that the meeting would complete the plans already made for winding up the company's affairs.

The liquidating committee, as agreed upon in the charter, consisted of Charles A. Peabody, president of the Mutual Life Insurance company and a representative of the U. S. Express company, and a representative of the Harima's interests.

The late E. H. Harriman bought more than 22,000 shares of U. S. Express company and Adams Express company and his estate holds about half the total stock of the firm.

MANUFACTURERS PLAN LOCAL COUNTY EXHIBIT

Plans were started today by officers of the manufacturers' committee of the Chamber of Commerce for a county exhibit of manufactured articles, this to form a preliminary for the big county exhibit at the Panama-Pacific Exposition. The principal features of the county exhibit will be saved for the big show. The matter will be submitted to a vote of the committee. The committee working out the plan consists of O. S. Ornick, Jr., J. Christy, C. Engvick, M. L. Hadley, L. Richardson, J. Miller and A. Wareskjold.

"I'll be all right, they needn't worry about me. The police knew I was all right. They treated me fine and they let me go as soon as they were satisfied that I was not a beggar. I have worked hard for my money and I am saving it for a rainy day."

BODY OF STRANGLERED BABY IS DISCOVERED

SAN FRANCISCO, March 12.—Strangled to death, it is believed, with a cloth tied tightly around its neck, the body of a one-year-old girl baby was found murdered in Suto Forest shortly before noon. The tiny corpse was wrapped in a flannel apron and a newspaper of the date of November 23, 1912. It was probably strangled or suffocated to death.

AERIALS ATTACKING

POMONA, Cal. March 12.—To prove the efficacy of the aeroplane as a factor in modern warfare, Aviators Glenn Martin, Charles Willard and Ignatius Sonfornie made an aerial attack today upon the fortified position of a battalion of California National Guardsmen. Several thousand spectators at the Pomona Speedway watched the contest. International rules of warfare were observed and army officers acted as judges.

PIEDMONT PARLOR HAS BANQUET AND PROGRAM

Four hundred members and guests of Piedmont Parlor, N. S. G. W., sat at the banquet board of that parlor last night in Central Hall. Preparations had been made for a general good time, special program and banquet, and these were all carried out as per schedule. The members of Piedmont Parlor, No. 57, N. D. G. W., had been invited and one hundred and fifty of these, together with their attendants, accepted. Grand President Thomas Monahan of San Jose, who is also mayor of that city, was present, and delivered an address. At the close of the festivities, Richard M. Harb was presented with an electric table lamp by the members of the parlor, in token of his good work and loyalty to his order.

PLAN CHURCH SOCIAL

ALAMEDA, March 12.—Members of the First Church of Christ, Scientist, and Disciples of Christ, will hold a social at the church, corner of Central and Oak streets. A program will be rendered. An invitation is extended to all.

WANT BETTER ROADS IN ISLE OF PINES

HAVANA, March 12.—A delegation consisting of the leading American farmers and business men of the Isle of Pines has called on President Menocal to urge the necessity of carrying out road improvement and other public works and the institution of postal and telephone service in the island. The delegates in return pledged themselves to operate an American school in each settlement. President Menocal promised to take their demands in consideration and said he would visit the island shortly in company with his secretaries of agriculture and public works.

SAFETY FIRST CONVENTION IN SESSION

Delegates From All Bay Cities
Among Those Who Attend Meeting.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 13.—Precautionary measures to minimize the number of industrial deaths and accidents in California were discussed by representative of manufacturing, transportation and men, and by labor leaders, at a "safety first" conference held here today at the call of Will J. French, one of the members of the State Industrial Accident Commission. The meeting was addressed by representative men from both sides of the industrial world, both of whom expressed a desire to co-operate with the commission in its purpose of establishing

French, in calling the conference to order, recalled the purposes for which the Industrial Accident Commission was established and recited the requirements of the Workmen's Compensation law that conditions of employment must be safe, and that all rules, orders and regulations issued by the commission must be reasonable in character and must be preceded by hearings at which employers, employees and others interested may be present.

FRENCH'S ADDRESS.
After mentioning the success with which a similar law had met in Wisconsin, Commissioner French said: "In California there are evidences of similar support."

The Oakland Manufacturers' Association and the Chamber of Mines and Oil of Los Angeles have advised the commission of their desire to appoint voluntary committees to work in harmony with the state safety department. Employers have called upon the safety engineers for suggestions in safeguarding their plants.

The safety of workmen is a matter of vital interest to the employer as well as the worker himself, according to J. A. McGregor, president of the Union Iron Works of San Francisco.

"As a purely economic proposition," he said, "the most accurate way of insuring plant reduce the efficiency of the plant and its employees. A man who can go about his task with freedom from danger does better work than one who must keep in mind at all times the risks which surround him."

LOSS MEANS MUCH.
"The loss of a competent workman through accident often means filling his place with one less capable, who is always reminded of the misfortune of his predecessor. Furthermore, a man's loyalty is not strong to a job that may cost him his finger, an arm or his life at any time."

"Such suits arise from any human consideration, the employer has sufficient business reasons for wishing his employees to be surrounded with every possible safeguard."

Continuing, he told of the work which already been done by large industrial concerns, such as the one of which he is the head, to protect laborers against accident and to provide for them if they are hurt.

Laborers, both organized and unorganized, will give earnest support to the movement to lessen industrial risks, said John A. O'Connell, secretary of the San Francisco Labor Council.

He related discussions that had taken place at the last convention of the American Federation of Labor in Seattle, favoring the movement for a federal bureau of labor safety and a museum of safety, and added:

"Industrial safety comes home peculiarly to the worker, who takes all the hazards. Wage earners have not only the same impulse that permeates others in considering this subject, but they have that intimacy that arises by reason of their direct connection with possible death and injury while at their labors."

REDUCES LOSS OF LIFE.
John R. Brownell, superintendent of safety of the Industrial Accident Commission, gave many figures to prove the practical effects of the adoption of safety appliances by large industries. In 12 years, he said, the Illinois Steel Company reduced the number of accidents at its plant by 65.2 per cent, the United States Steel Corporation, since 1907, by 50 per cent, and the Chicago & North Western Railway Company in three years reduced the number of deaths of employees by 35.55 per cent, and injuries by 25.6 per cent.

A set of resolutions approving the purposes of the meeting and requesting Commissioner French to appoint an advisory committee of 20 citizens, "equal" representing employers, employees and the public at large, to co-operate in the "safety first" movement was presented to the meeting by United States Shipping Commissioner Walter MacArthur.

PRINTED STAMP STARTS TROUBLE FOR KINDEL

WASHINGTON, March 13.—Representative George A. Kindel of Denver, who for months has been agitating a reduction of parcel post rates and who recently spoke on the subject in the House, has run afoul of the postal authorities in advertising the sale and distribution of his speech by means of a printed stamp on the back of copies he has mailed under frank as part of the congressional record.

Third Assistant Postmaster General Roper appealed to the department of justice, which gave an opinion stating the postal law was being violated. Kindel says he defies the department.

ADVENTISTS FIGHT ALL SUNDAY LAWS

Attempts to Legislate Said to Be Discrimination by Pacific Conference.

Vigorous opposition in speeches and resolutions to all attempts to enact Sunday laws was displayed today in the delegates to the biennial Pacific Union Conference of Seventh Day Adventists, in session at the local church of the denomination on Twenty-fifth street. The resolutions were as follows:

"Whereas, the rights and religious convictions of all citizens are equally entitled to the respect and protection of the government, already pledged by basic enactments to the maintenance of religious freedom, therefore,

"Resolved, That laws for the compulsory observance of Sunday would constitute an unwarranted discrimination in the observance of Sunday as a religious duty, and a violation of the freedom of religion, and

"Resolved, That we will continue the earnest advocacy of the voluntary observance of the true Sabbath, free from civil enactments, vigorously protesting against legislation tending to unite church and state, or to create civil standards of religion.

hereafter under any form of publicity, persistent attempts having been made, under specious pretexts, and through various organizations, to compel the observance of Sunday as a day of rest, notwithstanding irreconcilable differences of conviction as to the assumed sacredness of that day.

"Resolved, That a lecture campaign be conducted in this union conference during the ensuing year, and that addresses be delivered on the principles of truth of Protestantism, by speakers to be selected by the union conference committee.

"Resolved, That we endorse the suggestion of the general conference that an institute be held for the benefit of religious liberty secretaries, and others who may be called to assist in the religious liberty work, at such time and place as may be determined hereafter by the N. R. American Division Conference committee."

tions the session resolved itself into what might be termed a mass meeting.

SECRETARY SPEAKS.
John F. Hunt of Los Angeles, secretary of the Pacific Religious Liberty Association, was the first speaker. He said in part:

"I repudiate the right of any man to stand in the way of my worshipping God as I please. The passing of Sunday laws means the abridgement of a man's liberties. Let California be the bulwark against the tide of error that is coming

W. A. Spicer of Washington, D. C., secretary of the general or world conference, said the Adventist believers throughout the world are united in their opposition to Sunday laws or proposed Sunday laws.

I. O. Chubb said Sunday advocates are now circulating petitions among the churches in various parts of California, and also among the barber and other trade unions with the hope that they will secure enough signatures to place the measure on the referendum ballot.

Headline through prayer of a morphine friend who was taking from 10 to 15 grains a day, and the calling together of the members of the St. Helena sanitarium for prayer before major operations, were incidents told by George Thompson, St. D. medical superintendent of that institution, at yesterday afternoon's session of the conference.

D. D. Comstock, M. D., medical superintendent of the Glendale sanitarium, said that institution now has four physicians and 100 workers. It has gained steadily in the last few years from an insolvency of $25,000 to a present worth of nearly $100,000.

The new hospital, for which $20,000 was contributed by the Adventists at their last general conference, held in Washington, D. C., last May and June, is nearly completed. This is a part of Loma Linda College of Medical Evangelists at Loma Linda, Cal. Dr. W. A. Ruble, medical superintendent of the institution, said yesterday the students had increased from 62 to 75 in the last year. Forty of these are studying the peculiar needs of foreign fields with a view to doing foreign missionary work. Students and others connected with the college gave besides $11,747 tithes.
